Hello everyone,

Well I certainly hope every Kinglake Mother was spoilt over the weekend for Mother's Day! Our Mothers are very special people and do so much for ourselves and their families throughout the year. It's nice to stop and show appreciation, in which ever way is special for you and your Mum. Our Foundation to Grade 2 Mum's were treated to a special performance by students, singing and dancing before sharing in an afternoon tea, with very special cupcakes!

Last Wednesday our Grade 6 students had their second Leadership Day session with other local school students. Students focused on skills around public speaking and tuning in to body language. They focused on the messages their body language makes when interacting with others and reading other peoples body language. Students also interacted in some fun activities that worked around giving instructions and how important clear instructions can be when leading others in a task. For some students these activities challenged them to move out of their comfort zone and have a go at activities that are often one of the great fears of most people, public speaking. I think our students did very well!

Last Friday our Grade 3 to 6 students participated in interschool sports against Middle Kinglake Primary School. From all accounts the day went well, with lots of fun, competition and sportsmanship. Our netballers won their match 7-9. The rounders and T-ball match was not scored. Well done to all who competed and represented our school so well and with pride! Please don't forget that there is no interschool sports this Friday, due to Kinglake West having an in-service day.

This week has been all about NAPLAN. Our Grade 3 and 5 students started their language conventions test and writing test on Tuesday and did very well. It is great to see our students really apply themselves in these situations, giving themselves the opportunity to do their best. Today students will complete the reading test and on Thursday, the numeracy testing. Although it is a very formal method of testing, our staff have prepared our students well with lots of practice and preparation for the way these tests run. I am very happy to say, none of our students were concerned or anxious about the testing.

Please remember if you have any spare second hand uniform for donation, they can be dropped off at the office.

On the 20th May is Walking Safely to School Day and we would like as many people as possible walking to school on that day. We will be walking as normal from the post office at 8.15am, but happy to meet you along the way. We would also like to see as many parents as possible also walking. It is a great way to introduce younger students to walking safely to school, how to cross roads with care and to walk with other students where possible, safety in numbers. Walking to school also promotes exercise, wellbeing and is great for the environment. Hope to see as many of you there as possible!

Enjoy the weekend,

Deb Keating

It's time to pull-out the gumboots and slippers

With the wet weather here (Noooo!) It maybe a good idea to put a dry pair of pants in our children's schoolbags. The school has recommended that our children bring a pair of inside shoes to wear during class time. (make sure you label them) I'm going to send my girl's along with a pair of nice warm slippers.

Have a great week! Kylie
